EQUAL TO EMERGENCY.

was apparent to men who take note of the small details of the address and bearing of the custodians of great responsibilities. This cordiality of relations is a new and encouraging evidence of the increasing solidarity of our glorious republic, and points hopefully to a day when all questions of race, color, and creed will be interred forever in the martial trenches dug by our brave white and black fellow countrymen upon the battlefields of four wars, and buried irrevocably in the blue ocean that carries upon its ripples toward St. Thomas, Porto Rico, and Cuba the promise of a broader Americanism, a loftier citizenship, and a more perfect liberty wherever the inspiring flag of our land may be unfurled to the ambient breeze.

The Colored American is proud to take this occasion to congratulate Consul Van Horn upon his splendid record in the past and bid him godspeed in all of his future undertakings. Success is the reward that seldom fails to come to him who has learned to labor and to wait.

Lake View Park, Md.

One of the prettiest outings and summer resorts in the neighborhood of Washington is the new park known as Lakeview Park recently opened up by the Columbia Association. It is located on a high knoll near the lake on the Conduit Road a short distance east of Glen Echo, and has been arranged especially for the comfort of those who wish to spend a day in the woods and to get the country air. A new grand stand pavilion has been built and seats are well scattered in all parts of the grove in the shade. The coolest and purest spring water can be had and everything has been prepared for the enjoyment of those who visit the park.

Sundays are devoted largely to sacred concerts and to out door meetings. Thus far the attendance each Sunday has been in the neighborhood of 2,000. The park is located on the Conduit Road and can be reached by taking Metropolitan cars and transferring to the Washington and Great Falls line and getting off at the District line. Vehicles are in attendance at a small price to take you to the grounds. The public is cordially invited to visit this park.
